Background Information

The Dining Society (TDS) is a private members club which provides opportunities for students in the hospitality industry to practise both their professional and communication skills in an authentic restaurant setting.

Whilst dining with us, members and their guests are also encouraged to speak English or Putonghua with our students and thus strengthening their language proficiency.

TDS members are warmly welcomed to participate in regular chef demonstrations at our demonstration kitchens, to enjoy themed dinners at our Training Restaurants in addition to weekday lunches and to indulge in designated services within specific time period offered at The T Hotel and Training Spa.

For the enjoyment of all members and guests, in addition to other operational notes, we politely remind that:

- Student interests are our utmost priority and individual safety and campus security are of primary concern at the Institutes. During adverse weather conditions (such as red/black rainstorm and Typhoon 8 and above) or under special circumstances, we would adjust the practical training schedule and operations of the training restaurants to ensure individual safety. In the event of facility enhancement and suspension of face-to-face training, TDS restaurants may be closed
- TDS provides services to members only and memberships are not transferable. Guests must be accompanied by members showing valid TDS membership cards
- To minimise food wastage and better allocate our training resources, advance restaurant booking and cancellations are required
- Parking spaces are not guaranteed and are available subject to space
- Proper business attire or smart casual is required at all times. No shorts, sandals, caps or sleeveless t-shirts are allowed. Students and Instructors in-charge reserve the right to refuse entry to those whose attire does not conform to the requirements
- All mobile phones must be silenced prior to entering the Training Restaurants to create a favorable dining environment to all members
- Children below the age of 12 are not permitted
- A booking of maximum 8 guests (in the Western Training Restaurants) and 12 guests (in the Chinese Training Restaurant) is restricted per member per meal period (including member)
- Restaurant reservations for each meal period will be restricted to no more than 14 days in advance

Additional Information

- Chinese cuisine is served in Pokfulam, while western/international cuisine is served in both Pokfulam and Kowloon Bay
- Our Training Restaurants are open for lunch from 12:00 noon to 2:30pm[^] on Mondays to Fridays, except public holidays. In addition, western/international themed dinners are regularly offered
- Dinners are served in the Chinese Training Restaurant Friday evenings from 6:00pm to 9:30pm[^], except public holidays
- The number of seats available and table configuration in the Training Restaurants will vary depending on the daily training arrangements and other concurrent events
- TDS reserves the right to modify the terms and conditions of dining arrangements without prior notice
- Please visit our website at www.tds.org.hk or call us at 3717 7388 for information

[^] On some occasions for training purposes, the Training Restaurants may be closed for themed events
