Background Information

The Dining Society (TDS) is a private members' club which provides opportunities for students in the hospitality industry to practise both their professional and communication skills in an authentic restaurant setting.

Whilst dining with us, members and their guests are also encouraged to speak English or Putonghua with our students and thus strengthening their language proficiency.

TDS members are warmly welcomed to participate in regular chef demonstrations at our demonstration kitchens, to enjoy themed dinners at our Training Restaurants in addition to weekday lunches and to indulge in designated services within specific periods offered at The T Hotel and Training Spa.

For the enjoyment of all members and guests, in addition to other operational notes, we politely remind that:

- TDS provides services to members only and memberships are not transferable. Guests must be accompanied by members showing valid TDS membership cards
- To minimise food wastage and better allocate our training resources, advance restaurant booking and cancellations are required
- Parking spaces are not guaranteed and are available subject to space
- Proper business attire or smart casual is required at all times. No shorts, sandals, caps or sleeveless t-shirts are allowed. Students and Instructors in-charge reserve the right to refuse entry to those whose attire does not conform to the requirements
- All mobile phones must be silenced prior to entering the Training Restaurants to create a favourable dining environment to all members
- Children below the age of 12 are not permitted
- A booking of maximum 8 guests (in the Western Restaurants) and 12 guests (in the Chinese Training Restaurant) is restricted per member per meal period (including member)
